Subject Board Tutor

Are you an experienced secondary school teacher with an excellent track record in teaching and learning and in supporting colleagues in their continuing professional development?

Do you have experience in Initial Teacher Training, either as a mentor or a subject leader?

Would you be interested in extending and developing your own skills and experience by presenting to our future teachers in your specialist subject?

If so, why not consider joining the new Basingstoke School Centred Initial Teaching Training team and be directly involved in the training of our cohort of trainee teachers?

We are currently recruiting subject tutors for September 2017 in the following subjects:

PE

What does this role involve?

- Delivery of 18 x 2 hours of subject-based training per week on a Monday morning from September 11th - December 4th 2017, 3 sessions in the spring term 15.01; 12.02; 19.03 and then 4 more sessions between April 23rd and May 2018.
- Liaising with schools and visiting each term to meet trainees and carry out observations.
- Meeting as a group of subject board tutors every half term (twilight).
- Marking of assignments

What's in it for you?

- Bespoke training in the summer term of 2017 to support the delivery of your sessions.
- An excellent opportunity to extend your own repertoire of expertise.
- An opportunity to develop the teachers and leaders of the future.
- Remuneration for planning and preparation or delivery / observations of trainees.

What's in it for your school?

- Necessary supply costs paid for when you are out of your home school.
- Opportunities to benefit from your developing subject and ITT expertise.

For further information and an application form, please contact Nicky Hepworth, Programme Manager for the Basingstoke Alliance SCITT at Dove House School Academy: N.Hepworth@dovehouse.hants.sch.uk, 01256 275002.

Closing date: Tuesday 27th June 2017.
